

Rod McGeoch AO, LLB

Rod McGeoch was the leader of Sydney's successful Olympics 2000 bid. He is an Officer of the Order of Australia. He is also Chairman of BGP Holdings Plc, Chairman of Vantage Private Equity Growth Limited, Chairman of Chubb Insurance Australia Ltd, Director of Corporacion America International S.A.R.L., Director South Cone Foundation and Deputy Chairman of Venues NSW. Mr McGeoch is a Director of Destination New South Wales.

In March 2020 Mr McGeoch was appointed Chairman of the Australian Advisory Committee of the technology company 99 Technology. In mid-2020 he was appointed to the board of TOGOV Pty Ltd a company specialising in procurement for other governments and agencies in various countries of the world. In Mr McGeoch was appointed Chairman of Surevision Pty Limited. He was appointed Chairman of Australia Media Co (AMC) on July 2020.

Mr McGeoch is a former Chairman of the Committee for Sydney and plays a leading role in a variety of cultural, community and welfare organisations. He was also President of the Law Society of New South Wales and Director of Ramsay Health Care Limited. He has published two best-selling books: McGeoch and The Bid.